

Paulin Aby Yeshambel Maindron- Essayiyas

Actor

ABOUT

Already performing at a really young age, Paulin Aby Maindron knew that performing was for him. With his deep passion for stage, he extended his theater fan status to performer status and starred in plays and musicals, such as “Placide Robinier l’Opéra Bouffe” and Mrs Doubtfire as Daniel Hillard/ Mrs Doubtfire. These experiences showcased his acting skills and strong vocals. His voice is part of the original soundtrack for the Puy du Fou theme park, one of the biggest theme shows in the world. He was part of audiences for tv shows such as Karamo Show.

Lately Paulin Aby Maindron can be seen in the short movie “Unsaid” by the Nigerian director Ayodeji Otuyelu, “Los Sapos Valientes”, a play for children by Toby Campion and “The Vagabond Hotel” adapted from Manuel Zapata play, directed by German Jaramillo.

Paulin Aby Maindron graduated from Saint Gabriel- Saint Michel college (France) with a major in Music and Theater. As a dancer, he has also studied at the prestigious Ecole Atelier Rudra Béjart (Swiss) as a scholarship student. He was, as well, a full scholarship student at the world-renowned Ailey School and performed the repertoire. He toured around the world as a dancer.

When he’s not performing, he likes to go to the museum, discover small restaurants. He enjoys photography, music and fashion.